

Anywhere Is

Enya (1995) from The Memory of Trees

[Capo 1st fret]

D A G D
I walk the maze of moments, but everywhere I turn to
G D A D
Begins a new beginning, but never finds a finish.
 A G D
I walk to the horizon, and there I find another.
G D A D
It all seems so surprising, and then I find that I know.

Bm A
You go there, you're gone forever,
G/D A
I go there, I'll lose my way.
Bm A
If we stay here, we're not together,
G A
Anywhere is.

D A G D
The moon upon the ocean is swept around in motion,
G D A D
But without ever knowing the reason for its flowing,
 A G D
In motion on the ocean, the moon still keeps on moving
G D A D
The waves still keep on waving, and I still keep on going.

(Chorus)

D A G D
I wonder if the stars sign the life that is to be mine,
G D A D
And would they let their light shine enough for me to follow?
 A G D
I look up to the heavens, but night has clouded over.
G D A D
No spark of constellation, no Vela, no Orion.
