1865 (96 Degrees in the Shade) Third World (1977) С Am С Am G G 96 degrees in the shade, real hot in the shade. G Said it was 96 degrees in the shade. Am G Ten-thousand soldiers on parade Am G They were taking I and I to meet a big fat boy. Am G He was sent from overseas, the queen employ. Am Excellency, before you I come with my representation. G You know where us are coming from, yes. Am You caught me on the loose, fighting to be free. G Show me a noose on the cotton tree. G Am Entertainment for you; jah know, it's martyrdom for me. С G Am С G Am 96 degrees in the shade; real hot in the shade. (x2) Am G Some may suffer and some may burn, Am G but I know that one day my people will learn Am As sure as the sun shines, way up in the sky, G Am Today I stand here a victim; the truth is I'll never die. С G Am C G Am 96 degrees in the shade; real hot in the shade.