

The Glory of Love

Billy Hill (1936)

                  C                  G7                  C
You've got to give a little, take a little,
                  C7                  F                  C
and let your poor heart break a little;
                  Am          Dm
That's the story of,
                  G7          C          Am  Dm  G7
that's the glory of love.
                  C                  G7                  C
You've got to laugh a little, cry a little,
                  C7                  F                  C
before the clouds roll by a little;
                  Am          Dm
That's the story of,
                  G7          C          F          C
that's the glory of love.
                  F
As long as there's the two of us,
                  C
We've got the world and all its charms.
                  Fm  D7
And when the world is through with us,
                                  G7
We've got each other's arms.
                  C                  G7                  C
You've got to win a little, lose a little,
                                  F                  C
and always have the blues a little;
                  Am          Dm
That's the story of,
                  G7          C          F          C
that's the glory of love.
