

Happier

Guster (1999)

A Bm C#m E
Say goodbye, lose your friends, make them go, don't need them around.
A Bm C#m
Cause it's time, lose your friends, make them go,
E A Bm C#m
was never supposed to be like this. They were too weak, too prone to break,
E A
Their needs too deep, their skin too thin.
Bm C#m E
By now you took what was to take. Tear it apart and start again.

D A E
So go on, if this will make you happier.
D A E
It got you this far, did what you had to.

A Bm C#m E
You've wasted every moment of your Saturdays and your Sundays.
A Bm C#m E
You're wasted from the boredom, it was never supposed to be (like this.)
A Bm C#m E
Like your father said, just do what was done unto you, always,
A Bm C#m E
In your father's steps you'll do what was done unto you. It won't be hard to start again.

(Refrain 1)

Refrain 2:

D A
And you're gone now. (Well you knew this would come.)
E
And did it make you happier? (And you've left me all alone.)
D A
It wasn't that hard. (& you're lost & long gone, don't take it so seriously.)
E A
Did what you had to. (Go on and get goin', I'm fine on my own.
We got you this far, finally got it figured out.)

A Bm C#m E
One more inch, you son of a snitch, you've been wasting my time, always,
A Bm C#m E
And now you're half awake, you bend till you break, & make the same mistakes, always.

(Refrain 1 + Refrain 2)
