

Today I threw away my pills,
Against my family doctor's will.
They said they would make me smile,
But instead I feel nothing, ... nothing ...

I see that look on your face,
Wondering if I'm okay.
Mother need not to fear,
I promise to stay near.

You won't be there, forever.
You won't be there, forever.
You won't be there, forever.

I can learn to trust.
I can learn to scream.
I can learn to say yes,
If that's what you need from me.

You can learn to trust. (Forever, forever, forever)
 You can learn to scream. (Forever, forever, forever)
 I can learn to say yes, (forever, forever, forever),
 If that's what you need from me.

You won't be there, forever.
You won't be there, forever.
You won't be there, forever.
You won't be there, forever.
