

Who Will Save Your Soul?

Jewel (1995)

Am C
People livin' their lives for you on TV.
G D
They say they're better than you, and you agree.
Am C
He says, "Hold my calls," from behind those cold brick walls.
G D
Says, "Come here boy, there ain't nothin' for free."
Am C G
Another doctor's bill, a lawyer's bill, another cute, cheap thrill.
D
You know you love him if you put him in your will.

Am C G D
But, ... who will save your soul when it comes to the flowers, now?
Am C G D
Who will save your souls after those lies that you told, boy?
Am C G D
And who will save your souls if you won't save your own?
Am C G D
La, da-di-da, da-di-da, da, da, da, yeah, da.

Am C
We try to hustle them, try to bustle them, try to cuss them.
G D
The cops want someone to bust down on Orleans Avenue.
Am C G
Another day, another dollar, another war, another tower went up
D
where the homeless had their homes.
Am C G
So we pray to as many different gods as there are flowers.
D
But we call religion our friend.

Who Will Save Your Soul?

Jewel (1995)

Am C
We're so worried about a-saving our souls,
G D
afraid that God will take his toll, that we forget to begin.

Am C G D
But, ... who will save your soul when it comes to the veterans, now?
Am C G D
Who will save your souls after those lies that you told, boy?
Am C G D
And who will save your souls if you won't save your own?
Am C G D
La, da-di-da, da-di-da, da, da, da, yeah, da.

Am C G
Some are walking, some are talking, some are stalking their kill.
D
Got social security, but it doesn't pay your bills.
Am C
There are addictions to feed, and there are mouths to pay.
G D
So, you bargain with the devil, but you're O.K. for today.
Am C
Say that you love me; take their money and run.
G D
Say, it's been swell, sweetheart, but it was just one of those things.
Am C
Those flings, those strings you got to cut.
G D Am C G D
So get out on the streets, girls, and bust your butts.

Am C G D Am C G D
Who will save, save your soul ... when it comes to the veteran?
Am C G D
Who will save your souls, those lies that you told, boy?
Am C G D Am
And who will save, save your soul when you won't save your own?
