

Treat Me Like Somebody

Tink (2014)

Oh yeah yeah, oh yeah yeah yeah yeah,
Yeah, oh yeah yeah yeah, oh yeah yeah yeah yeah.

Sometime somebody real is hard to find, somebody worth all your time.
Somebody who tell you the truth. Someone who loves you for you.
Someone who knows all of your flaws and doesn't impose, try to control them.
Let's you be free, doesn't deceive, and gives you a chance to believe, believe in something.

Is that too much? Cause I've been on a search and I'm losing my hope.
Is that too much? Is that too much? Trying to find love in a world so cold.
Is that too much? I just want an answer, I can't be the only one.
Is that too much? You ain't got to be perfect, just give me a purpose to love.

I just want somebody (body), to treat me like somebody (body),
Won't be like everybody (body), all you got to do is love me for me baby.
I just want somebody (body), to treat me like somebody (body),
Won't be like everybody (body), all you gotta do is love me for me baby.

Now don't be mislead by the things that I said in the past,
I was young, I was looking for a thrill.
That didn't last long, I was in it for the wrong,
wrong reason, wrong season, wrong person (yeah).
Cause he just wanted one thing, and I just wanted something
To smile at, and live for, and hug on (oh).
I'd rather have quality than quantity,
Oh, I just want someone that'll keep it real with me!

Is that too much? Cause I've been on a search and I'm losing my hope.
Is that too much? Is that too much? Trying to find love in a world so cold.
Is that too much? I just want an answer, I can't be the only one.
Is that too much? You ain't got to be perfect, Just give me a purpose to love.

I just want somebody (body), to treat me like somebody (body),
Won't be like everybody (body), all you gotta do is love me for me baby.
