

I will take good care of you.
I will take good care of you.
Everything you feel is good,
If you would only let you.

I will wash your hair at night,
And dry it off with care.
I will see your body bare,
And still I will live here.

So stay with me.
Hold my hand.
There's no need
To be brave.

And all the quiet nights you bear,
Seal them up with care.
No one needs to know they're there,
For I will hold them for you.

Cause' all I ever wanted is here.

All I ever wanted,
All I want is,
Always you,
It's always you.

And we're not out of the tunnel,
I bet you, though, there's an end.

Stay with me.
Hold my hand.
There's no need
To be brave.

And while you sleep,
I'll be scared.
So by the time you wake,
I'll be brave,
I'll be brave,
I'll be brave.
