

New Person, Same Old Mistakes

Tame Impala (2015)

I can just hear them now, "How could you let us down?"
But they don't know what I found, or see it from this way round:

Feeling it overtake all that I used to hate,
One by one, every trait. I tried, but it's way too late.

All the signs I don't read, two sides of me can't agree.
Will I be in too deep? Going with what I always longed for.

Feel like a brand new person, (but you'll make the same old mistakes).
I don't care, I'm in love! (Stop before it's too late).
(I know) Feel like a brand new person, (but you'll make the same old mistakes).
I finally know what it's like (You don't have what it takes).
(Stop before it's too late. I know there's too much at stake. Making the same mistakes.)
And I still don't know why it's happening, (Stop while it's not too late), and I still don't know.

Finally taking flight, I know you don't think it's right.
I know that you think it's fake, Maybe fake's what I like.

The point is, I have the right, not thinking in black and white.
I'm thinking it's worth the fight. Soon to be out of sight,
Knowing it all this time, going with what I always longed for.

Feel like a brand new person, (but you'll make the same old mistakes).
I don't care, I'm in love! (Stop before it's too late).
Feel like a brand new person, (but you'll make the same old mistakes).
So how do I know I've gone too far? (You don't have what it takes. Stop before it's too late).

Man, I know that it's hard to digest, but maybe your story ain't so different from the rest.
And I know it seems wrong to accept, but you've got your demons, and she's got her regrets.
And I know that it's hard to digest, a realization as good as a guess;
And I know it seems wrong to accept, but you've got your demons, and she's got her regrets.
But you've got your demons, and she's got her regrets.

Feel like a brand new person, so how will I know that it's right?
In a new direction, so, how will I know I've gone too far?

(Stop thinking that the only option was) Feel like a brand new person, I finally know what it's like.
(Stop thinking that the only option was) In a new direction, so, how will I know I've gone too far?
(Stop thinking that the only option was) And I know it's hard to describe.
(Stop thinking that the only option was) So how will I know that it's right?
