

We're going out tonight.
She's dressed up, looking good. I love her style.
We share all our clothes.
I really like your nose.

You don't have to change.
You're perfect the way you are.
You don't have to change.
You're perfect the way you are.

You're perfect the way you are, perfect the way you are.

Perfect the way you are,
Perfect the way you are,
Perfect the way you are.

We used to sleep on a twin bed in my lonely apartment.
You always held me down
When I didn't have shit.
You used to take the bus
Just so you could be with me, just so you could be with me.

You don't have to change.
You're perfect the way you are.
She's a pretty girl without the filter.
She looks beautiful with no makeup on.

No makeup on,
No makeup on,
No makeup on,
No makeup on.
