

Oh, what up, haven't seen you around.
You say that you can't get up off the ground.
I said, "hey, I could feel it too,"
But man, it just sometimes it takes so long to get out.

And when I'm finally awake,
The moment is gone and the sun is so far away.
I can still feel good,
If I put on a face and will myself to say:

Wake up baby, let's get ready (keep on, keep on),
I know you don't feel so well.
(that's what I say, that's what I say to myself every day).

Wake up baby, let's get ready (keep on, keep on),
I know you don't feel so well.
(that's what I say, that's what I say to myself every day).

Well, it's finally time to go to sleep,
And now my mind is stuck on listening.
So, I smoke a little something but it doesn't help me.
It just keeps me up a little longer more than I anticipate it.
That's the way the cycles keep on going lately.
