

Special, (ooh) ...

Woke up this morning to somebody in a video,
Talking about something I posted in a video.
If it wasn't me then would you even get offended? Or,
Is it just because I'm Black and heavy? Y'all don't hear me though.

I've been the same since I've been driving slow on Bissonnet.
Call up anybody I know and they would tell you that.
Fame is pretty new but I've been used to people judging me,
That's why I move the way I move, and why I'm so in love with me.

I'm used to feeling alone, oh, so, I thought that I'd let you know ...

In case nobody told you today: you're special (special).
In case nobody made you believe: you're special (special).
Well, I will always love you the same: you're special.
I'm so glad that you're still with us.
Broken, but damn, you're still perfect (perfect), special ...

Could you imagine a world
Where everybody's the same?
And you can cancel a girl
'Cause she just wanted to change.

How could you throw fuckin' stones,
If you ain't been through her pain?
That's why we feel so alone,
That's why we feel so ashamed, hmm.

I'm used to feeling alone, oh, so, I thought that I'd let you know, oh ...

In case nobody told you today: you're special (special).
In case nobody made you believe: you're special (special).
Well, I will always love you the same: you're special.
I'm so glad that you're still with us,
Broken, but damn, you're still perfect, (perfect).

I know that I'm not alone, oh
So, I thought that I'd let you know, oh, Uh, yeah, yeah, yeah (yeah, yeah)

In case nobody told you today: you're special (special).
In case nobody made you believe: you're special (yeah).
Well, I will always love you the same: you're special (special).
I'm so glad that you're still with us (I'm so glad).
Broken, but damn, you're still perfect (so glad, so glad, so glad).

Special, you are, you are, you are so special. Mmm, hey ...
