

Rock solid! Spending the night alone,
Then the morning come, then the daylight come.
Sky's falling, and I'm pushing this paper home,
I'm gonna do something later, I'm gonna melt into vapor.

I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.

Rock solid, and I'm pushing this rock uphill,
I'm a proletarian, I'm not a, not a, not a Sisyphean.
Wires grounded, and I'm feeling this power surge,
Riding the elevator to the, to the bottom of the escalator.

I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.

*C-c-c-c-case of collapsing center, a-a-a-a-abandon all hope who enter.
C-c-c-c-case of collapsing center, a-a-a-a-abandon all hope who enter.*

*Rock solid, this is the time for us,
Not like the last time, or like the time before that*

Rock solid! Rock solid! Rock solid! Rock solid!

I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
I'm feeling really good about myself. I finally like the hand that I've been dealt.
