

I sit back and watch TV.
Of all the faces on the screen,
I have seen none of me, staggeringly.

The melting ice caps in my dreams
Made me stop and think about, think about,
Time running out.

I would quit my job, if I had a job.
If I had a job, then I would have everything I want.
I would quit my job, if I had a job.
If I had a job, then I would have everything I want.

I just wanna have a good day. I just wanna have a good day.
And it's only me that's standing in my way.
I just wanna have a good day. I just wanna have a good day.
And it's only me that's standing in my way.

First my looks, and now my friends,
Day by day I'm losing them, losing them.
Losing collagen, losing elastin.

The melting ice caps in my dreams
Made me stop and think about, think about,
Time running out.

I would quit my job, if I had a job.
If I had a job, then I would have everything I want.

I just wanna have a good day. I just wanna have a good day.
And it's only me that's standing in my way
I just wanna have a good day. I just wanna have a good day.
And it's only me that's standing in my way.
