

I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.

I keep calling, keep hauling, keep hauling them back.
I can't stand, can't stand, can't stand this attack.
This neuron buzz is on another level.
I'm on thin ice, I'm dancing with the devil.

Can't sleep with the noise in this house,
But you can't beat the allure of this now.
I can't sleep with the noise in this house.
Why won't they pipe down?

I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.

I keep taming, keep training, keep taming the horse.
But it's wild, it's feral, and it's running its course.
Patiently madness waits in line,
In the reception room of my mind.

Waiting for the door to be left
Unattended and open for an unwanted guest,
And it's so busy I'd be surprised
If I even noticed.

I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I wanna live outside, live outside of all of this.

No, they don't even know about us.
They don't even know about us.
No, they don't even know about us.

I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this now.

I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this.
I'm gonna live outside, live outside of all of this now.
