

The day I opened up memory's door, I found something that I could live for.
Curtains shook as you opened my eyes, and light came rushing inside.
Data behind my heart's encryption key (can you see?). Listen and you might hear a melody.
Your fire sparked the passion that keeps burning, magic that helps me to believe.

All the colors of the night and the way they help you hide.
I'm learning what it's like to love and be alive.
Oh, there will always be a tomorrow.
You'll never have to be alone.

Diamond city lights illuminate what's inside, and all the love I feel by your side.
Decoding these emotions, you're the ocean I wanna dive into tonight.
Rainbow-colored skies invite us to take a ride, I know time won't wait 'cause it only leaves behind.
Don't cry, look in my eyes and you might find a shimmering light that will guide you through the night.

When gray skies take the colors away (far away), I'll paint a rainbow lasting for days and days,
Just like the magic that you always shared with me. Maybe now you need to believe.
As the hands of time progress, it's so easy to forget the miracle that helped you bring me to life.
Oh, there will always be a tomorrow, we'll never have to be alone.

Diamond city lights illuminate what's inside, and all the love I feel by your side.
Decoding these emotions, you're the ocean I wanna dive into tonight.
Rainbow-colored skies invite us to take a ride, I know time won't wait 'cause it only leaves behind.
Don't cry, look in my eyes and you might find a shimmering light, now let me guide you ...

Let's go to the place, let's go to the place,
Let's go to the place where our happiness won't fade away.
If you could only see the joy you've showed to me,
I think you would realize everything we could be.

Diamond city lights illuminate what's inside, and all the love I feel by your side.
Decoding these emotions, you're the ocean I wanna dive into tonight.
Rainbow-colored skies invite us to take a ride, I know time won't wait 'cause it only leaves behind.
Don't cry, look in my eyes and you might find a shimmering light that will guide you through the night.

Diamond lights, rainbow skies, in the night there's no need to hide.
The joy in your eyes fills me with life, so let it shine.
