

Mama always told me, "baby, you gotta walk by faith, and not by sight."
Real talk. You gotta listen. Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, ... ooh, yeah.

Oh, listen to me now. I'm gonna say it loud, so you won't be confused 'bout what we talkin' 'bout.
I've been through the storm, had dirt on my name,
I'm still holding on, champion of the game.

They say, "Whatever don't kill you make you stronger."
Well, I must be the world's strongest woman.
See I done done a whole lotta growin', everything you say I'm already knowin'.

'Cause I, I been up against ropes,
everything you're going through I been there before.
Seen them all come, and I seen them all go.
You can bet your last that my head won't hit the floor, never.

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.
I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.

I had a lover take his own in front of me,
I asked God, "why is this happening to me?"
But I didn't fold, I held my own.
And now I'm deep in love with who I belong. (This is my life).

They say with age comes wisdom, and the white flag, I can't give 'em, Tryin' to tell you how it's s'posed to be. See, this is more than just a song to me.

'Cause I, I been up against ropes,
everything you're going through, I been there before.
Seen them all come, and I seen them all go.
You can bet your last that my head won't hit the floor, never.

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.

I'm unbreakable, baby! Luda, yeah, it's a family affair.

I may have done the things they say I did, but I'm not who they say I am.

Try to throw my name in the dirt, but I really don't give a damn.

I'm still standing like the statue of liberty, and I put my name in the history books,

So you'll forever remember me,

remember me as the toughest warrior or the ultimate fighter,

'Cause I'm the truth and nothing but, it's like my hands on the bible,

And it's the survival of the fittest, the realest, it's not a facade.

Still standing on my two feet, 'cause I'm a child of God. Do something!

I been up against ropes. Everything you're going through, I been there before.

Seen them all come, and I seen them all go.

You can bet your last that my head won't hit the floor, never.

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing.

(I'm not gonna give up, never).

I been up against ropes (come too far to look back, oh)

Everything you're going through, I been there before..

Seen them all come, and I seen them all go (I've seen it, I've seen it)

You can bet your last that my head won't hit the floor,

(I've done it, I've done it, I'm done)

Never (let me live my life now).

I'm still standing, standing, standing, standing (I let it go, I let God).

I let it go, and I let God.

Don't hate me now, I ain't who I used to be no more.

I'm still standing. I'm still standing.

I'm still standing, oh, I'm still standing. I'm still standing.

You can't take this joy I have, hey.
