

A sea of waves, we hug the same plank. (Saw your end).
Just as I'd rehearsed over in my brain. (Saw your end).

The waves suck you in, and you drown.
If like you should sink down beneath.
I'll swim down, would you? You?

You hang the anchors over my neck. (Saw your end).
I liked it at first but the more you laughed
The crazier I became.

The waves suck you in, then you drown.
If like you should stay down with me.
I'll swim down with you.

Is that what you want? You.
Is that what you want?

Wave ... wave ... inside ...

If like you should stay down beneath
I'll swim down. Would you?
Is that what you want? Would you?
Is that what you want? With you?

You ... escape ... below ...
Escape ... below ...
